

PRELIMINARY SCIENTIFIC PROGRAMME

Thursday 3 September

Day 1 Plenary session

|                   |   |                                  |
|-------------------|---|----------------------------------|
| 0800–0900         | Coffee and Registration   |                                  |
| 0850–0900         | Welcome & Introduction  | Mr Simon Paterson–Brown          |
| Session 1. | Where are the boundaries between ‘general surgery’ and ‘specialist upper GI surgery’? |                                  |
|                   | Chairpersons: Mr Merv Rees/Professor Derek Alderson                                   |                                  |
| 0900–0915         | Management of gall stones   | Professor James Garden           |
| 0915–0930         | Anti–reflux surgery   | Mr Mike Rhodes                   |
| 0930–0945         | Laparoscopic gastric bands  | Ms Sally Norton                  |
| 0945–1000         | The advantages of emergency GI surgical sub–specialisation                            | Mr Simon Paterson–Brown          |
| 1000–1030         | Discussion and implications – the view from the top                                   | Mr John Black, PRCSE             |
| 1030–1100         | Tea / Coffee  |                                  |
| Session 2. |   |                                  |
| 1100–1230         | Plenary papers  |                                  |
|                   | Chairpersons: Mr Rowan Parks/Mr Declan Carey  |                                  |
| 1230–1300         | BJS invited lecture   |                                  |
|                   | Chairman: Professor James Garden  |                                  |
|                   | Avoiding bile duct injury during laparoscopic cholecystectomy                         | Dr Steven Strasberg, St Louis    |
| 1300–1400         | Lunch   |                                  |
| Session 3. | Introduction of new techniques  |                                  |
|                   | Chairpersons: Mr Richard Hardwick/Mr Ian Beckingham                                   |                                  |
| 1400–1420         | Minimally invasive oesophago–gastric surgery  | Mr Paul Barham                   |
| 1420–1440         | Minimally invasive liver resection  | Mr Neil Pearce                   |
| 1440–1500         | Gastric banding/bypass  | Mr Richard Welbourn              |
| 1500–1520         | Guidance from NICE  | Professor Bruce Campbell         |
| 1520–1550         | Tea / Coffee  |                                  |
| Session 4. | Invited Lecture (Co–sponsored by Bayer and Biocompatibles)                            |                                  |
|                   | Chairman: Professor John Primrose   |                                  |
| 1550–1620         | Advances in the management of liver cancer  | Professor Ronnie Poon, Hong Kong |
| 1620–1650         | AUGIS invited lecture   |                                  |
|                   | Chairman: Mr Simon Paterson–Brown   |                                  |
|                   | The role of Robotics in acquiring new surgical techniques                             | Dr Pier Giulianotti, Chicago     |
| 1700–1730         | AGM   |                                  |

AUGIS

PRELIMINARY SCIENTIFIC PROGRAMME

AFFILIATE SESSION TO RUN SIMULTANEOUSLY IN THE AFTERNOON ON THURSDAY 3 SEPTEMBER

Conference Suite 3

|           |  |  |
|-----------|--|--|
| 1400-1700 | Trials and Tribulations of Referrals to an HPB Centre              | Ms Liesl Smith, HPB CNS,Freeman Hospital Newcastle                           |
|           | Free Papers  |  |
|           | Update on the first Oesophago gastricCancer Awareness Campaign | Ms Dawn ElliotCouncil RepresentativeMs Claire SedgwickRVI, Newcastle |
|           | Free Papers  |  |
|           | Update on the National OG Audit                                    | Mr Tom PalserClinical Research Fellow toNational OG Cancer Audit         |

PRELIMINARY SCIENTIFIC PROGRAMME

AUGIS

Friday 4 September 2009

Parallel Sessions:

|   |  |
|---|--|
| Session 1. Parallel Session OG/BOMSS   | Session 1. Parallel Session HPB   |
| 0845–0900 The Regional Oesophago–Gastric Awareness Week ProfessorMichael Griffin  |  |
| 0900–1030 (Conference Theatre)Gastric cancer – Laparoscopicversus open gastrectomyChairpersons: Mr Nick Hayes/Mr Alberic Fiennes | 0900–1030 (Conference Suite 3)Advances in the treatmentof HPB cancerChairpersons: Professor JohnPrimrose/Professor Max Malago |
| 0900–0920 Results and expectations Mr Nick Maynardfrom open radical gastrectomy   | 0900–0920 PET–CT and Colorectal Liver Dr StevenMestastasis Strasberg, St Louis   |
| 0920–0950 Results from laparoscopic Dr Pier Giulianotti,gastrectomy Chicago   | 0920–0940 Surgery for hilar Professor Maxcholangiocarcinoma Malago   |
| 0950–1000 Discussion  | 0940–1000 Advances in chemotherapy Professor Johnfor HPB cancer Neoptolemos  |
| 1000–1030 Bariatric Surgery Dr Phil Schauer,Salvaging the failed gastric Clevelandbypass – what next?   | 1000–1030 Robotic pancreatectomy Dr Pier Giulianotti,Chicago   |
| 1030–1100 Tea/Coffee  | 1030–1100 Tea/Coffee   |
| Session 2. Parallel Papers   | Session 2. Parallel Papers  |
| 1100–1230 OG/BOMSSChairpersons: Mr Simon Dexter/Mr David Hewin  | 1100–1230 HPBChairpersons: Mr GraemePoston/Mr David Berry  |
| 1230–1245 Parallel discussion on OG/Bariatric databasecollectionChairpersons: Mr RichardHardwick/Mr Alberic Fiennes                                     | 1230–1245 Parallel discussion on HPBdatabase collectionChairperson: Mr David Berry   |

Session 3.

|           |   |                            |
|-----------|---|----------------------------|
| 1345–1400 | Winning Poster presentations  |                            |
| 1400–1430 | Plenary LectureChairman: Mr Alberic Fiennes‘The operating room of the future’   | Dr Phil Schauer, Cleveland |
| 1430–1500 | RCSEd James IV LectureChairman: Mr Simon Paterson–BrownRapid endoscopic identification and destruction ofdegenerating Barrett’s mucosal neoplasiaEnd of the meeting | Professor Hugh Barr        |