

AUGIS

Association of Upper Gastrointestinal Surgeons of Great Britain and Ireland

SW Regional Upper GI Surgery Education Day

Wednesday 4th July 2018

Holiday Inn Hotel, Bristol

An Educational Day highlighting key issues in the management of common UGI surgical problems.
Suitable for surgical trainees and consultants.
Expert faculty presenting up to date and relevant topics.

PROGRAMME

9.00 Registration

BARRETT'S OESOPHAGUS

9.30 Best practice for diagnosis and follow up

9.50 Endoluminal treatment options for Barrett's

10.20 Coffee

BARIATRIC SURGERY

10.40 Introduction to bariatric operations

11.00 Acute complications. What the non-bariatric surgeon should know

11.30 Long-term complications. What the non-bariatric surgeon should know

12.00 The By-Band-Sleeve trial

12.30 Lunch

COMMON BILE STONES

1.15 Sunflower Trial

1.30 Laparoscopic management of CBD stones

1.55 Endoscopic management of CBD stones

2.20 Difficult case presentations and discussion

2.45 Coffee

SEVERE ACUTE PANCREATITIS

3.00 Diagnosis and initial management of severe acute pancreatitis

3.20 Imaging and interventional radiology in acute pancreatitis and its complications

3.45 Recognition and management of complications in severe acute pancreatitis

4.05 Endoscopic US and intervention in pancreatitis

4.20 Open, percutaneous and endoscopic necrosectomy. When and how?

4.45 CLOSE

The meeting is free to attend.

To register, please email: Richard Krysztopik, Consultant UGI Surgeon, Royal United Hospital, Bath

richard.krysztopik@nhs.net

